Friends,

We said last week that without the power of the Holy Spirit, you and I as believers will not have the ability to live the life Christ calls us to live. When you accepted Christ, you acknowledged and accepted the Holy Spirit to come and take up residence in your heart. So the power is available for you to live a "Christ Centered" life if you will call on the Holy Spirit to lead you. As a whole, too many of us are living anemic lives for Jesus, and it does not have to be that way. Let God lead you every day to live the kind of life that is empowered by His spirit. If you will do this, all things really do become "Possible" with God. It is your choice; choose Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit to lead you every day in making the best choices for your life. It matters and it will make a difference for your future. The decisions you make today determine the story you tell tomorrow.

WEEKEND WORSHIP

This weekend Rev. Gene Strange will address the Apostles Creed as it relates to the statement, "Jesus descended into hell." This is not always used or stated in some versions of the Apostles Creed. This comes from the "Traditional English" version. This should make for an interesting sermon and I would guess it might just elicit some great conversation. I hope you will be in worship and hear what Gene discovered in his study on this portion of The Creed. What we might discover is that Jesus had a mission, and he still has a mission in that He never wants anyone to become separated from God's love. Invite yourself and some friends and family to join you this weekend in worship.

ODDS AND ENDS

Mark your calendar for Maundy Thursday services on Thursday, April 13th. The service will begin at 7:00 pm. I believe you will be blessed as we continue our journey to the cross and then on to the Resurrection on Easter morning.

We are attending the wedding of my brother's oldest daughter this weekend. Please pray for Ashley and Tanner as they begin their lives together. It will be a great celebration.

Divinely Unique Thrift and Gift Store

Hello Church Family,

It's been another great week in the store. Sales are good, donations are being processed in a timely manner, more and more people are becoming "regulars" and seem part of the store family, a shopper has become a new volunteer (yeah!), income is up and expenses are down. Does it get any better? Yes, continually God makes Himself at home there, as evidenced by the sign on the door inviting folks to any of the Easter Services here. Way to go, team!

We have been so blessed with gifts of specifics we've asked for: dishwasher, copier, donations bin, racks, etc, etc. We are probably repeating ourselves but we are always in need of leaf bags, paper towels, liquid hand soap, other household supplies but especially leaf size black bags for the things we pass along to other thrifts or salvage. It's a win-win if we look for ways to serve as well as receive. Remember the Scout's yard sale Saturday? The store was glad to help them with some goods also. Win-win is always good.

Shop often and bring your friends. We have racks and racks of nice summer clothing outside on our half price sale. It's all good, just way too much of it, so help us thin out a little and bless others as well.

Blessings to all,

Your Thrift Store Board
