

Tuesday, December 4 – Jane Meek

Read Luke 21:25-36

“There will be signs in the sun, moon and stars. On the earth, nations will be in anguish and perplexity at the roaring and tossing of the sea. People will faint from terror, apprehensive of what is coming on the world, for the heavenly bodies will be shaken. At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

He told them this parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near. Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near. “Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away. Be careful, or your hearts will be weighted down with carousing, drunkenness and the anxieties of life and that day will close on you suddenly like a trap. For it will come on all those who live on the face of the whole earth. Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man.”

In these scriptures we are told that “strange things” will be happening to the sun, the moon and the stars. We are told that on Earth whole countries will be in despair and people will be fearful as they wait for what is coming over the whole earth.

Then the Son of Man will appear, coming in a cloud with great power and glory. We, as Christians, are instructed to stand up, raise our eyes to the Heavens, because our salvation is near.

We are told to pray always that we will have the strength to go safely through all these things and stand before the Son of Man.

Prayer: Thank you, God, that we have the assurance that when this world has passed away, we will all be together with You in heaven. Amen!