

March 25 Ruth Levins

Read Psalm 118: 1-2, 19-29

¹Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever. ²Let Israel say: "His love endures forever." ¹⁹Open for me the gates of the righteous; I will enter and give thanks to the LORD.²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD through which the righteous may enter.²¹ I will give you thanks, for you answered me; you have become my salvation. ²²The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; ²³the LORD has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes. ²⁴The LORD has done it this very day; let us rejoice today and be glad.²⁵ LORD, save us! LORD, grant us success ²⁶Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD. From the house of the LORD we bless you.²⁷ The LORD is God, and he has made his light shine on us. With boughs in hand, join in the festal procession up to the horns of the altar.²⁸ You are my God, and I will praise you; you are my God, and I will exalt you.²⁹ Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; his love endures forever.

Psalm 118:2 "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good. His Love endures forever."

We can remain confident in God's unchanging eternal Love in the midst of a constantly changing world, a world that is moving about us in an ever-increasing fast pace. To me, personally, it seems that technology is trying to take over our lives; many are so dependent upon it.

And yet, we know that our God is Love. He created us for a purpose. His perfectly-timed plans are at work in our lives, through the power of His Holy Spirit. He personifies His Love in us with the words we speak, the love we share.

Let us give thanks for each day's gift of Life to share lovingly with our church family and those we encounter along our life's journey. His Love endures through us!

God is good!
All the time!

All the time!
God is good!

Prayer: Father, may we always remain confident in your unchanging love. Thank you for loving each of us as your child.
